

ANGEL TRANSCRIPTION SERVICES

Offering end-to-end capture and delivery of your caller information, Angel provides a 'one stop shop' for your all your IVR and transcription needs. Whether you'd like to capture name and addresses of callers, collect survey responses, or gather detailed caller data, Angel Transcription Services makes gathering information about your customers, patients, or clients faster, easier and more convenient than ever.

SOLUTION OVERVIEW

Transcription Services enables you to easily capture caller information and transcribe an entire voice recording over the phone into text format. Caller information is collected via Angel's IVR application and captured in an audio file. The information is then transcribed manually to insure maximum accuracy and reliability, and the results are delivered back to you within 48 hours.

Convenient, Cost-effective Solution

Working seamlessly with Angel's intelligent IVR technology, Transcription Services provides a central resource for your voice communication and data collection needs. Information collected from the Angel IVR solution is seamlessly transcribed behind-the-scenes – one bill, one vendor, one point of contact. In addition, by automating the process of taking detailed messages over the phone instead of using expensive live operator time, Angel offers an affordable and efficient transcription solution that insures data quality.

Full Integration

Utilize Angel's on-demand phone solutions to collect data from callers, transcribe pieces of information from the call, and communicate key pieces of data into existing CRM or ERP applications. This integration also allows you to pull or push data from customer corporate databases, CRM, ERP and supply chain applications back into the Angel system to be available via phone to your customers.
